Banking on it

Claire Kidney met South African Marc Tenwick six years ago, when they were both working in a Baggot Street bank. Marc has since moved into another job but he couldn't bring himself to move away from Claire. He actually had his plane ticket back home bought at one stage but decided to cancel it to stay in Ireland with his new girlfriend.

The pair will tie the knot in September, with the reception taking place at the Marriot Hotel in Druids Glen and the wedding is going to have a Rat Pack theme.

For her fantasy dress, Claire wanted full-on Hollywood glamour and we think this Novia D'Art dress from Ophelia Bridal fits the bill to perfection.

Claire wears Novia D'Art dress, €2,400/£1,895, Ophelia Bridal; beaded hair piece, price on application, Stacey Hannan Designs; Jay Valas Swarovski crystal sandals, €485/£383, Cocobelle; pink rose and crystal faux bouquet, €85/£67, from All About Weddings
